

TPCT'S TERNA NURSING COLLEGE
And
TERNA SPECIALITY HOSPITAL & RESEARCH CENTRE
IN COLLABORATION WITH
MAHARASHTRA NURSING COUNCIL, MUMBAI
ORGANIZES
CONTINUING NURSING EDUCATION
ON:
ROLE OF NURSE IN
PALLIATIVE CARE Date:-
Venue:-
TERNA NURSING COLLEGE
16.04.2021

Continuing Nursing Education

Title: - “Role of Nurse in Palliative Care”

Date: - 16th April 2021.

Time: 9.30 am to 2.30 pm

PREAMBLE:-

A one-day CNE on Role of Nurse in Palliative Care has been conducted on 16th April 2021, at Terna Nursing College, Nerul.

Participant’s Profile:- CNE Participant’s : 300.

Description about the program:-

Inaugural ceremony was done at 9:45am by Ms. Surekha Dongerdive, Clinical Instructor, Terna Nursing College followed by welcome address by Vice Principal of TNC Prof. Mrs. Pratibha Athare

MNC Observer : Ms.Prachi Dharap also addressed the participants.

9.45 am – 10.00 am - Pre-test was given to the participants.

10 am – 11 am - Ms. Lucy Quardos .Nurse Co-ordinator (Palliative medicine) Tata Memorial Hospital. Conducted session on Palliative care- A holistic approach and following topics has been covered:

- Palliative care nursing
- Art of Nursing in Palliative Care
- Total care
- Psychological support
- Nurses’ role in spiritual dimension of palliative care
- Psychosocial issues in cancer
- Impact on health workers
- Self-care

11am – 12 pm - Ms. Maria Carvalho. Former Principal of College of Nursing, Tata Memorial Centre. Volunteer in Palliative Department TMC has conducted session on Palliative Care Nursing and covered the following points :

- Introduction to palliative care nursing.
- Principles of Palliative Care.
- Various aspects of palliative care.
- Nursing Issues in Palliative Care.
- Learning various procedure to take care of Palliative patients.

11 pm – 1 pm - Ms. Sindhu Shibu Nair. Deputy Nursing Superintendent, Tata Memorial Centre has conducted session on Psychological reactions and interventions to cope in Palliative care and following topic has been covered:

- Assessing the Client's Ability to Cope with End-of-Life Interventions.
- Recognizing the need and providing interventions.
- Psychosocial Support to the Family and the Caregiver.
- Assisting the Client in the Resolution of End-of-Life Needs and Issues.
- Providing End of Life Care and Education to Clients.

1 pm – 2 pm - Dr. Mary Ann Muckadem . Professor and former head of Dept. Palliative Medicine, Tata Memorial center has conducted session on “Impact of Covid 19 on Palliative patient – Gap opportunity and covered the following topics :

- Spectrum of patient who were affected by the pandemic
- Types of holistic suffering which they were undergoing
- Barriers to provision of regular care
- Methods employed to overcome these barriers telemedicine, enlist of local General Practitioner more effectively and use of closer cancer centers etc.
- Psychological, social and spiritual support.
- Experiences from around India and the world.
- Response of patients and caregivers to these forms of care.
- Gap or opportunity.

2.00 pm – 2.15 pm – Post Test and Feedback was given to the participants.

2.15 pm – Vote of Thanks.

Ms. Priyanka Kadam, Clinical Instructor, Terna Nursing College proposed Vote of thanks for the CNE.

The entire Program was coordinated and made a grand success with support of:

Principal – Mrs. Ashwini Panderkar

Vice Principal – Ms. Pratibha Athare

All Teaching and Non-Teaching faculties of Terna Nursing College and 1st Year M. Sc. Nursing Students.

